June 2019

Dear Family and Friends,

We are looking forward to welcoming our new students this fall, and I know that many of you will be there to see them off as they begin the next phase of their lives.

I invite you to join us in our welcoming activities by participating in Caltech's Convocation ceremony on Sunday, September 22, 2019, starting at 4:00 p.m. in Beckman Auditorium. Convocation formally welcomes all new students and postdoctoral scholars to the Institute with an address by President Rosenbaum and a brief introduction to life at Caltech inside and outside of the classroom.

Immediately following the ceremony, new undergraduate students and their families will have the opportunity to say their goodbyes before each part for separate activities that culminates the day. These activities are designed to help students bond with their class, while family members will get to know more about Caltech and our Student Affairs leadership.

I hope that you will be able to join us for Convocation and the activities that follow the ceremony. I look forward to greeting you on September 22.

Best wishes,

Joseph E. Shepherd
Vice President for Student Affairs;
Allen V. C. Davis and Lenabelle Davis Leadership Chair, Student Affairs;
C. L. "Kelly" Johnson Professor of Aeronautics and Mechanical Engineering
